F202201	Horseshoe Creek Kayak Trip	Wed., Sept. 14	7:30 am – 1:30 pm	Leader: Dave
Horseshoe and Chessy Creeks are tributaries of the Ashepoo River which puts the "A" in ACE Basin. The blackwater paddle winds through freshwater marshes, old rice canals, forests and some neighborhoods. The area will be shaded at times and full sun at other times. It is tidal and there may be some current, but not usually significant. The creeks are beautiful and plan on seeing alligators and an assortment of birds. We have had an otter encounter or two out there as well. We last did this trip 2 ½ years ago.
Min: 12		Max: 18	Cost: $65.00

F202202	Port Authority	Thurs., Sept. 22	9:30 am – 1:00 pm	Leader: Carol
Join us for a tour of SC Ports' Wando Welch Terminal, the busiest container terminal in South Carolina! SC Ports has invested more than $2 billion in port infrastructure, including enhancements at Wando to handle more cargo and the largest ships calling the US East Coast. You will experience a firsthand look at our vessel and yard operations and learn about port activities, major projects, and plans for the future. Come enjoy a small bus ride through the terminal with a SC Ports Authority guide. Minimum walking. Please bring a valid government-issued photo ID with you.
Min: 14		Max: 14	Cost: $12.00

F202203	H.L Hunley Confederate Submarine	Tues., Sept. 27	10:00 am - 2:30 pm	Leader: Norm
Join us for a private tour of North Charleston's Warren Lasch Conservation Center, the home of the rediscovered H.L. Hunley now undergoing restoration. Lost for 130 years at the bottom of Charleston Harbor, discovered and raised in 1994, the Hunley was the Confederacy's secret weapon against the Civil War blockade of the harbor by Union ships. The first combat submarine in the world to sink a warship, the USS Housatonic, the Hunley itself was sent to the bottom in the explosion with all eight crew members lost. Our tour at the conservation center and research laboratory will include viewing artifacts recovered from the ship, stepping inside a full-scale replica of the submarine and visiting the submersion tank in which the Hunley is on display as restoration continues.
Min: 20		Max: 25	Cost: $35.00

F202204	Before &amp; After Civil War &amp; 1886 Earthquake	Wed., Sept. 28	12:30 pm – 4:30 pm	Leader: Linda
Charleston was badly damaged by the Union Army during the Civil War. The Union soldiers burnt much of Charleston. Much of what wasn't destroyed during the war fell after the August 31, 1886 earthquake which left more than 100 people dead and hundreds of buildings destroyed. This was the largest recorded earthquake in the history of the southeastern United States. Despite witnessing so much destruction, Charleston has been able to restore many of its historic structures. Hear from an expert tour guide about what Charleston was like before and after these devastating events. Our guide will have large before &amp; after photos to show us.

SINHG FALL 2022 TRIP LIST

F202205	Upper Wambaw Creek Kayak Trip	Thurs., Sept. 29	7:30 am – 1:30 pm	Leader: Dave
Wambaw Creek is a beautiful blackwater creek which is a tributary to the Santee River and was paddled by the Santee and coastal Plain Indians for thousands of years. The creek is surrounded by a seasonal floodplain swamp where giant old growth Bald Cypress trees as well as, Water Tupelo, Water Oak, Water Ash, Red Maple and Swamp Dogwood shade the banks of its pristine black waters. It offers spectacular birding and wildlife viewing. This paddle will take you through the upper section of the creek into the Francis Marion National Forest. This is pristine, undeveloped forest with 1,000 year old Cypress trees. There is little current or tide though you will have to navigate around the cypress trees.

F202208	Barbados and Charleston, The Ties That Connect	Wed., Oct. 5	9:00 am-1:00 pm	Leader: Lynn
Many families who became prominent planters and slaveholders in Charleston — including the Middleton, Drayton, and Gibbes families — have Barbadian origins. These Anglo Barbadian settlers brought colonial experience, the parish system, the Anglican Church, and plantation slavery to Carolina. The influences of Barbados are still felt on the streets of Charleston today. Much of our history is attached to this vibrant island -- our parishes, our homes, our government, our settlers. Come discover the Bajan influence. This is a 2 hour moderate WALKING tour.

F2022012	They Wear the Ring, The Citadel Tour	Tues., Oct 11	9:00 am-1:00 pm	Leader: Lynn
In 1822, the South Carolina Legislature passed an "An Act to Establish a Competent Force to act as a Municipal Guard for the Protection of the City of Charleston and Vicinity. Governor John P. Richardson felt that guard duties should be combined with a system of education. On December 20, 1842, The South Carolina Legislature passed an act establishing the South Carolina Military Academy. The Citadel ring symbolizes the history of the school, of the State of South Carolina and of the ideals on which the college was found. As Pat Conroy said of the words he wrote in Lords of Discipline, "I wear the ring" that ... "sums up better than anything how I felt and how other people feel about this college." Come explore the history, tradition and the legacy of the Mighty Citadel. This is a 2-hour moderate WALKING tour.

F202214	Cheehaw River Kayak Trip	Wed., Oct. 12	8:00 am – 1:30 pm	Leader: Jim
This is a two-hour black water paddle on Cheehaw Creek in the ACE Basin. We will see abandoned rice fields and, hopefully, abundant wildflowers and wildlife. The timing of the paddle is designed to take advantage of the tides. There is a picnic area and floating dock at the landing. We will be next to the Donnelley Wildlife Management Area, so you may want to take a self-guided tour of this 8,000-acre preserve while you are in the area. The office at the entrance has maps highlighting the preserve's main attractions. While kayaking on flat black water without tidal influence for approximately 2 hours, wind is sometimes a factor.

SINHG FALL 2022 TRIP LIST

F202217	Doin' the Charleston Renaissance	Tues., Oct. 18	9:00 am-1:00 pm	Leader: Lynn
In the Antebellum era, Charleston was one of the ten largest cities in America. The Civil War destroyed the city's prosperity, and the economic after-effects lingered through the Reconstruction era into the early 20th century. Beginning around World War I, however, the city experienced a renaissance in the arts as the local art community worked on bettering their city and representing it in various media. A culture phoenix rising from the ashes of the Civil War and Reconstruction, the Charleston Renaissance roared into the 1920s as artists, writers, musicians, poets, and preservationists revitalized the city's social, cultural and artistic identity. This 2 hour walking tour takes you back in time as you visit sites associated with icons such as DuBose Heyward, Elizabeth O'Neil Verner, Josephine Pinckney, John Bennett and the Jenkins Band to name a few. This is a moderate WALKING tour.
Min: 11		Max: 20	Cost: $30.00

F202218	The S.O.B. Tour	Wed., Oct. 19	9:00 am – 2:30 pm	Leader: Julia
Whet your appetite for Charleston with a historic stroll! This 1.5-hour walking tour will guide us through some of Charleston's oldest and best-preserved neighborhoods, giving us an insider's look at the streetscapes of Charleston past and present. The architecture and history of the Revolution, Antebellum, and Restoration periods are on full display in the beautiful French Quarter and South of Broad boroughs, and our city-licensed tour guide is ready to acquaint you with all the extraordinary tales of a city that's shaped the American story at every turn. After our walk we will sit back and relax in the historic State Street dining room with a catered lunch (3 courses) representing the most historic and tastiest of Charleston cuisine prepared by our chef along with narration from our guide.

F202219	Ravenel Bridge Walk	Thurs., Oct. 20	9:15 am -1:30 pm	Leader: Carol
We had so much fun this past Spring that we've scheduled a second running of the bridge walk! So, folks, it's crunch time again, i.e. time to brush the Twinkie crumbs off your chin, lace up your Nikes, and experience the exhilaration of walking where deer never run. We'll park practically under the bridge at Memorial Waterfront Park in Mt. Pleasant to begin our trek. The bridge uphill is a little strenuous (more so from the MP side) but you can walk at your own pace and rest whenever you like. At midpoint there are benches where we can regroup and enjoy the absolutely spectacular view of the harbor. When we reach the Charleston side, we'll refuel (lunch, light snacks, pastries, etc.) at Mercantile and Mash in the wonderfully renovated Old Cigar Factory building—a destination itself. Afterwards we'll retrace our steps to our patiently waiting cars. Bring sun protection, water, a windbreaker and cell/camera. Extensive walking.

F202222	Pirate Walking Tour	Tues., Oct. 25	9:00 am-1:00 pm	Leader: Lynn
We got so many great reviews from the Spring 2022 Trip, we are offering this one again. Charles Town became a busy seaport, prey to pirates looking for valuable cargo. This tour tells the story of the infamous Blackbeard's siege of the city in 1718; this exciting drama unfolds within the walls of the old city. Participants will view the Pink House (circa 1688) – a tavern at the time of Blackbeard's visit, the tomb of Colonel William Rhett (famous pirate hunter), and hear of the trials, convictions, and numerous pirate hangings on scaffolds constructed outside the city wall. Free Admission to Powder Magazine. Our guide will be wearing vintage pirate attire and he may bring his parrot. This 2-hour moderate WALKING tour begins and ends at the Powder Magazine Museum. (79 Cumberland Street).

F202232	Hobcaw Barony	Tues., Nov. 15	7: 45 am-2:00 pm	Leader: Julia Lynn M.
We'll carpool to Hobcaw (in Georgetown, SC), then embark on a 2-hour bus tour that includes highlights of Hobcaw's Barony's 16,000 acres of history and ecology. A privately owned research reserve, the property represents every environment and century in the lowcountry. Naval stores, indigo, and rice production ended by 1905, when the land was purchased by Bernard Baruch, a native South Carolinian and Wall Street financier. He and other millionaires hunted ducks, deer, and wild turkeys on this winter retreat. The bus stops for a tour inside his 1930 home which played host to politicians, generals, and newspapermen, as well as Winston Churchill and President Franklin Roosevelt. In addition to Hobcaw House, the tour includes a drive by Bellefield plantation, the home of Belle Baruch who owned the property by 1956, as well as a drive through Friendfield Village, the last 19th century slave village on the Waccamaw Neck. If enough people sign-up we'll run two trips at the same time.

F202233	Paint and Wine	Wed., Nov. 16	7:00 pm – 9:00 pm	Leader: Pat
Craft &amp; Canvas, Charleston's premier Paint &amp; Sip business, will guide us through painting a festive picture this evening. Members of Seabrook Natural History Group are invited to enjoy a relaxed environment as we listen to music and paint a fun creative winter themed painting. With a brush in one hand and a drink in the other, all levels of painters will enjoy themselves.

F202234	A Christmas Carol	Fri., Dec. 2	6:30 pm – 11:30 pm	Leader: Jane
"Bah humbug!!" A Christmas Carol is back at the Dock Street Theatre this December with a brand new production, new costumes, new sets and some holiday music to set the mood. Your seats will be orchestra center. Filled with the carols of the season and magical special effects, miserly Ebenezer Scrooge, despite himself, discovers once again the magic of Christmas.

F202235	Beautiful Yawkey	Wed., Dec. 7	9:00 am – 4:00 pm	Leader: Julia
Tom Yawkey, long-time owner of the Boston Red Sox and avid conservationist, willed his munificent South Island Plantation to the SC Department of Natural Resources in what is considered one of the most outstanding gifts to conservation in North America. This property, located on three coastal islands at the mouth of Winyah Bay, consists of pristine marshes, wetlands, ocean beaches, long leaf pine and maritime forests. Over the years it has become a refuge for wildlife preservation, providing research, education, field study, and protection for endangered species. Entrance to the refuge is difficult to come by and strictly limited to groups of 14. We'll carpool to the Georgetown area, board a pontoon boat for the 300' ride to the island, then tour by van, stopping once to see the Yawkeys' matching house trailers and retreat. We've run this trip again and again with good reason. Besides being a wonderfully informative tour, the shore and wetlands scenery is magnificent. Bird and waterfowl migration is at its peak during the winter months, which will make this trip particularly interesting. Minimal walking; participants must be able to board the boat via a very short ramp and step up into the van. Bring water and binoculars. Bugs should not be that much of a problem at this time of year but long sleeves, pants and repellent are recommended. Your fee is a donation to the Tom Yawkey Wildlife Center.

F202236	Ann Caldwell's Magnolia Gospel Singers at Drayton Hall	Sun., Dec. 11	2:30 pm - 6:30 pm	Leader: Carol
We did this trip in 2019 and it was rollicking good fun. Ann Caldwell is simply a force of nature and her a cappella gospel group is beyond buoyant and boisterous. The concert is actually held in the basement of the Hall where sound multiplies exponentially and the acoustics are splendid. Our afternoon begins with what they call 'light bites' and seasonal beverages. If the fare is like our previous experience, there should be plenty to eat. Over the years this concert has become a holiday staple at Drayton Hall and tickets are hard to come by. They're sold on a first-come, first-serve basis and we'll do our best to accommodate you. Please note that Drayton Hall is not handicap accessible and stairs can be hard to navigate.

SINHG FALL 2022 TRIP LIST

F202237	Holiday Progressive Dinner	TBA	4:00 pm – 9:30 pm	Leader: Julia
The Holiday Progressive Dinner is becoming a Seabrook holiday tradition and it's one of the best ways to see downtown Charleston during the Christmas season. The evening begins with hors d'oeuvres at the King's Courtyard Inn. We then travel by horse-drawn carriage to a splendid 3-course dinner at Circa 1886 and top off the evening with dessert &amp; coffee at the venerable John Rutledge House Inn on Broad. The carriage ride is a lovely way to glimpse many of Charleston's historic homes decked out in their Christmas finery. Most non-alcoholic beverages are included with your dinner; wine, beer, alcohol, and sodas are charged separately. A caveat: climbing in and out of the carriage may be difficult for some.
Min: 20		Max: 48		Cost: $135.00 (non-refundable unless a substitute is found) tax &amp; tip included
